The pass allows your guest or spouse to accompany you to the Sunday evening reception, continental breakfasts on Monday and Tuesday, the Reception & Dinner at Georgia Aquarium on Monday evening, and access to a free shuttle to Stone Mountain Park or Virginia Highlands neighborhood on Monday.

Stone Mountain Park is a 3,200 acre world where excitement is carved in stone. Stone Mountain was formed approximately 300 million years ago. The giant granite rock rises 1,683 feet above sea level and covers 583 acres of rolling plateau.

The largest bas-relief sculpture in the world, the Confederate Memorial Carving, depicts three heroes of the U.S. Civil War — Confederate President Jefferson Davis and Generals Robert E. Lee and Thomas J. “Stonewall” Jackson. The three-acre carved surface is larger than a soccer field! Other park attractions

Historic Virginia Highlands is Atlanta’s most popular neighborhood for shopping, dining and nightlife. Developed in the early 1900’s, it consists of seven distinct commercial “villages” alternating with short, walkable blocks of charming bungalow homes. Its name derives from the intersection of Virginia and Highland Avenues. Virginia Highlands is acclaimed for its eclectic shopping. Trend-setting apparel, classic to kitschy antiques, folk and pop art, whimsical decorative accessories, natural linens, distinctive art books, gourmet kitchenwares, fine woodworking and gardening tools, unusual fresh flowers, rare cigars, full-service day spas, fashionable salons, gelatos, contemporary, antique or traditional furniture – all are just a few of the extensive retail offerings.
